MISCELLANEOUS
986	1900 "Black and White Budget" Vol.II no.13 Magazine of Jan 6. "Transvaal Special Edition" with photos & reports from the Boer War Special Correspondent. Advertising on inside covers. Very good cond.	$20
987	same as above but Vol III no.26 of April 7 1900 with front cover photo of Pres Kruger & Gen. Cronje, repeated on inside page with commentary "President Kruger and General Cronje on the steps of the Presidential Residence at Pretoria. The former is still a source of trouble to us, but the latter is on his way to the apartments we have fitted up for him at St Helena". There follows "Notes o' War" from S Africa & photos incl HMS Australia as part of an article on the Queen's visit to Ireland. Fine cond.	$25
988	1903 "The Daily Mirror" November 2, 20 page tabloid with front page entirely devoted to adverts, ditto page 2. The news starts on page 3 with a boxed weather forecast: "our special forecast for today is: continuing changeable; fair at first, rain everywhere later". Page 4 is headed "The World's Latest News by Telegram and Cable"; page 5 is headed "The News of London and the Provinces". On page 11 is "the Hour Glass of Fashion" by Mrs Jack May with large illustration titled 'A Very Artistic Tea gown'. This just gives a taste of the tabloid, which is lightly stained at edges & has the odd minor tear, but unfolded & otherwise fine.	$30
990	1911 "The Daily News" London & Manchester June 23 Newspaper with "Special Edition" in red at top & photo of KGV & Queen Mary in Coronation regalia. This 12 page broadsheet is devoted primarily to the Coronation, with its back page showing a London map titled 'The Route of the Royal Progress Friday, June 23'. Apart from natural paper ageing, this newspaper is in exceptional condition with only one (horizontal) fold. Historical gem.	$30
991	1912 "The Daily Mirror" newspaper for April 16, largely concerned with the reports of the sinking of the Titanic. Wearing on spine & tape-reinforced/repaired on front page but a rare & sought-after edition of this tabloid. Please view with extreme care - fragile!	$200

992	1919 "The Cologne Post" Newspaper (a daily published by the Army of the Rhine in English) for April 24 - price 20pf. A4 page broadsheet starting to break in the folds & with wear/insect "interest" on the edges but a marvellous "time capsule" of news about the turbulent aftermath of WWI.	$25
993	1919 "Yorkshire Telegraph & Star" Sheffield newspaper for June 28. "Peace Special" reporting Germany's signing of the Treaty of Versailles. A4 page broadsheet folded vertically & horizontally & showing some fraying, together with a few minor tears at top & left side, plus mildew (?) marks. Nevertheless, this is a document of historical interest, with several illustrations of the "major players" & the venue for the signing (in great detail!) & of the public reactions to the announcement. Please view with extreme care.	$80
